VALENTINE'S DAY

Family Conversation Starters

What do you think it means to be someone's Valentine?

Do you know who St. Valentine was, and why we named a day celebrating love after him?

Do you have a special friend you'd like to be your Valentine this year?

How many different kinds of love can you think of? (Romantic like mom and dad, love for friends, love for your family, love for your "neighbor," etc...)

How can you show another person that you love him or her?

Does love always have to be mushy, like girlfriends and boyfriends?

Do you think it's easy to love other people, or hard?

What's your favorite kind of Valentine candy?

Do you like to make your own Valentine cards or buy them?

Do you think it's fun or awkward to give Valentines to your classmates?

Do we know anyone who might not get a Valentine this year and how we can make them feel special?

What do you think is better: to love someone, or to be loved by someone?
