

TALK

TEAM

Family Conversation Starters

What team is your favorite team to cheer for?

Name 3 things a good team needs.

If you could be any of these 4 team parts which would you be: a leader, a motivator, a worker or an organizer?

In what kind of tasks does your family team do well?

Who is the most giving member of your family team?

Who is hardest working member of your family team?

What member of your family team do you want to be most like and why?

When you get mad at a family team member, how do you react? How can you react in a better way?

Why is it important for team members to respect each other?

What qualities do you like in the coaches or teachers that lead you in sports or at school?

Name one famous person on a team that you admire and why.

What is the hardest thing about being on a team and getting along with your teammates?

TALK

TEAM

Family Conversation Starters

Name 3 things that are good about having a team versus doing something alone.

Name one time when your family team really came out and supported you and how that made you feel.

Who on your family team helps you the most and how can you help them?

Who on your family team needs you the most and how can you help them?

What project do you think your family team should tackle this summer?