For my words to be loving.	Show me who I have offended and can ask for forgiveness.	That my thoughts are pure, true, and right.	Help me to show compassion to my kids.	Help me to live more like You so that my kids will see You through me.	Keep me from complaining.	For all the good in my life and what you have planned for me.

Help us to resist temptation.	That You will fill us with peace today.	That we find our identity in Christ.	That I will make Your son the center of my life and my family's life.	That you will help those suffering.	That you will show me how to serve others.	That the people in authority will make wise decisions.
